

Understanding, Managing and Coping with ‘Coastal Change’

The Devon Maritime Forum Winter Meeting – December 8th, 2015

Langstone Cliff Hotel, Dawlish, South Devon

Programme

Timing	Agenda Item	Speaker
09.30	REGISTRATION
10.00	Welcome and House Keeping	Steve Guilbert DMF (Coordinator)
10.05	Chairman's Introduction	Prof. Ed Maltby DMF (Chairman)
Session I – Understanding and Managing Coastal Change
10.10	The Extreme 2013/14 Winter Storms: Response and Recovery Along the Southwest Coast of England	Dr. Tim Scott Plymouth University
10.30	Shifting Shores: Adapting to Change	Phil Dyke National Trust
10.50	Flood and Coastal Risk Management Delivery: Dawlish Warren	Richard Cox Environment Agency
11.10	REFRESHMENT BREAK
Session II – Coping with Coastal Change: Adaption and Innovation
11.30	No Regrets: Planning for Sea-level Rise	Helen Pearce LDA Design
11.50	Protecting and Creating Coastal Habitat: Tried, Tested and Novel Approaches	Colin Scott ABP Marine Environmental Research Ltd.
12.10	An Innovative Approach to Coastal Change: Sandscaping	Olivia Thomas The Crown Estate
Soapbox Session
12.30	S1: The Swansea Bay Tidal Lagoon	Paul Connelly LDA Design
12.35	S2: Managing and Planning the Coast for Inherent Uncertainties	Greg Guthrie Royal HaskoningDHV
12.45	Questions/Discussion I	Forum
13.10	LUNCH BREAK
Including opportunity to browse in 'Market Area'

Special Session – Coastal Change and Rail Resilience
14.20	Introduction to the South West Peninsula Rail Task Force	Cllr. Andrew Leadbetter Devon County Council
14.30	PRTF's Three Point Plan for Rail Resilience	Bruce Thompson Devon County Council
14.50	Western Route Rail Resilience	Joanna Grew Network Rail
15.10	PRTF Questions/Discussion	Forum
15.40 - 15.50	Closing Remarks	Prof. Ed Maltby DMF (Chairman)

The Devon Maritime Forum is kindly supported by:

Thank you for your support